

The Grace of the Holy Spirit

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

By Monk Markellos Karakallenos

The Holy Spirit is the source of the divine gifts and when He descended upon the holy Apostles, He gave them all the graces. Through them therefore every receptive and pure soul receives the spiritual gifts of the Holy Spirit.

Through the Holy Apostles the Holy Spirit granted to the faithful, the believers of their preaching the knowledge of theology, of Divinity, and divinely to confess in true faith the indivisible and inseparable nature of Divinity, known by the three hypostases, the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit.
