

My secrets (Saint Nicholas Velimirovich)

ες / Ρήματα ζωής

You can hide yourself more easily from the wind than from the sight of God. All the secrets of humanity – the good and the bad – are revealed before God.

He uncovers numberless such mysteries, in accordance with His providence, all over the world. People who are able to understand this truth, guard the depths of their hearts from bad thoughts and, in particular, bad actions

» Saint Nicholas Velimirovich

Source: pemptousia.com