

16 Σεπτεμβρίου 2015

The Cross as a Means of Sanctification and Transformation of the World

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English / The Ascetic Experience / Ξένες γλώσσες

Through the Cross, Christ sanctified His body- the link with the world. He rejected the temptations sent to Him by the world, that is to taste the pleasures, to satisfy His needs unrestrained or to avoid pain and death. If we, in the same way, ward off the temptations of sin and patiently suffer the pain of death, sanctity can spread from His body to all bodies and throughout the world.

read more