

It is more blessed to give than to receive

In English / The Ascetic Experience

Image not found or type unknown

Elder Porphyrios loved everyone with Christ's love, which is unique for each individual. But the rich heart of Christ and the rich hearts of all those who resemble Him are capable of loving all men in a unique way, each individual being an image of the beloved Christ. And this love attracts Divine Grace, which falls upon the person who is loved in the form of a great and boundless joy. The person who loves feels joy because loving means giving and giving is a blessing, as the Lord Himself said ('It is more blessed to give than to receive' – Acts 20: 35).

“Former Presiding Justice of the Court of Appeals George Arvanitis”

This is an excerpt from an article published at www.pemptousia.com