Help from the Mother of God

18/1/2016

In 2008, my wife and I were married. During her first pregnancy she lost the baby. After that, our spiritual guide brought us from the Monastery of Vatopaidi a ribbon from the Girdle of the Mother of God, which my wife wore all the time. At the same time, we kept the rule given us by our spiritual guide, read prayers and lived modestly. No sooner had we finished the rule than a child was conceived. We had a girl, Sidonia. May the Mother of God help all those who call upon her.
