

Heightened responsibilities (Elder Epifanios Theodoropoulos)

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

Image not found or type unknown

The fact that the Gospels are written in Greek presents us with heightened responsibilities. Any outstanding scholar abroad who wishes to deal with the New Testament has to learn Greek. All of them, be they German, French, English or American know Greek well. If other people respect the language of the Gospels, how much more should we preserve the Greek language?