

15 Φεβρουαρίου 2017

It's mobile and free (Saint Nectarios of Pentapolis)

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

Image not found or type unknown

People who have given in to their innate urges can't have a reasoning soul, because a reasoning soul wishes to act freely. Since it's mobile, it also has freedom of movement. Whatever it does, it does of its own volition, not out of necessity. So a reasoning soul is intellectual, mobile and free. It's aware of itself and the quality of its actions.