

23 Φεβρουαρίου 2017

Lighter than a feather (Saint John Chrysostom)

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

Image not found or type unknown

The prayer of the Church has such great power that, even if we speak less than stones, it could make our tongue lighter than a feather. Just as, when a breeze fills the sails of a ship and makes it go faster than an arrow, so the prayer of the Church, when it falls onto the tongue of those saying it, makes our words stronger than the breeze.