

What do they reject? (Elder Efraim Vatopaidinos)

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

Image not found or type unknown

Monastics leave the world because they reject its diseased spirit. By departing from the world, however, they don't abandon the human person. Proof of this is that people come and find them, they stick to them, they want to connect with them. They relax when they're with them.