If you want people to understand you, then you must become like them. That's the move which God made: He became human, He spoke our language, He communed with us on all human levels except sin, and that's how He managed to truly communicate with us. So, not only did Christ, Who came and saved us, meet us where we were, but He did something else as well: He surrendered Himself for our life. In other words, He forsook everything which was His and gave Himself up for our sake.
