

Sharp minds (Saint Nectarios of Pentapolis)

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

Image not found or type unknown

Sobriety is the natural state of mind of those who haven't become drunk and it denotes perception, prudence and care. This is why people who are sober are on guard and look carefully at what they can achieve. Their minds are sharp, they're incisive and super intelligent. They're not laden with cares, nor do they become easily discouraged.