The root of every tragedy (Elder Joseph of Vatopaidi)

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

Pride is horrible darkness. It's the opposite of divine goodness, the beginning of every evil, the root of every tragedy, the sower of hatred, the body of evil, from which springs destructive egotism. Christ is 'light, truth and life'. When this true light enfolds us, then we sense His love, His wisdom, His very Self as self-evident truth.
