With the honours accorded to a Head of State, the Precious Girdle of Our Lady the Mother of God left the Holy Mountain in order to be available for veneration by the Orthodox faithful in Greece in the Metropoles of Nea Ionia, Larissa and Aitolioakarnania.

Together with Elder Efraim, the venerable Abbot of the Holy and Great Monastery of Vatopaidi, It was given in an official welcome in New Ionia on 3 November by Metropolitan Gavriil and a host of clergy and laity, since it is the sole heirloom we have of Our Lady's life on earth.
