

Bigger and more serious things (Abba Dorotheos)

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

Image not found or type unknown

If we remembered the words of the holy Elders, if we studied them, it would be difficult for us to fall into sin, hard for us to neglect ourselves. Because if, precisely as they've advised us, we didn't despise the little things, which we consider insignificant, then we wouldn't get to the point of falling into sin over bigger and more serious things.