

28 Νοεμβρίου 2017

They feel alone (Elder Tadej Vitovničk)

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

Image not found or type unknown

There are times when people despair and lose heart, which, in its own way, is a kind of pride. If people love the things of this world, they're sure to be brought to disappointment, because they aren't going to find God in them. All people feel alone at some time or another, even when they're with other people, until they become free of the things of this world. At that point, God comes and comforts them.