We often don't realize (Elder Iakovos Tsalikis)

We have to forgive everyone, as God does. The Gospel tells us that the rain falls on the just and the unjust. Because we're all sinners and we all deserve to be condemned for our sins, however few or many they may be. This is why we must forgive and pray to God that He'll forgive us sinners likewise, given that we don't even understand that we sin frequently, nor even what we're doing and not doing.
