

With fear and love (Saint Mark the Ascetic)

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

Those who wish to have their sins remitted welcome being humbled. Those who judge their neighbour are simply prolonging their own wickedness. It's better to pray for people to God, with fear and love, than to censure them for every sin they commit.