It makes us feel abandoned (Abba Dorotheos)

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

Since we don't deal with our wickednesses, since we don't weep over our dead selves, we can do absolutely nothing to put ourselves to rights and so we're constantly concerned with our neighbours. And nothing angers God more, nothing strips us bare so completely and makes us feel abandoned as do gossip, criticism and condemnation of our neighbour.
