As if it hadn't come (Saint Ambrose of Milan)

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

Is the kingdom of God not eternal then? Jesus says that this is why He was born and came into the world (John 18, 37) and we say: 'May your kingdom come', as if it hadn't already done so. But this wish has another meaning. God comes when we receive His grace. He Himself asserts: 'The kingdom of God is within you' (Luke 17, 21).
