We'd be able to hide (Elder Tadej Vitovničk)

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

When people are in a state of Grace, the soul is calm and mellow. It can't be goaded into rage. Later, such people are expected consciously to reject evil. They have to overcome all the enemies of their soul while they're still in this life. Our enemies aren't made of flesh and blood. If they were, we'd be able to hide from them and escape them. But our spiritual enemies are everywhere.
