The liberation of Cyprus (Saint Paisios the Athonite)

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

The Elder was asked: 'When will Cyprus be liberated?' He answered: 'Cyprus will be liberated when the Cypriotes repent. Make some religious bases to get rid of the Turkish, English and American bases'. In other words, he saw Cyprus as a spiritual problem, not a political or national one, and that its resolution would come through the repentance and prayers of the people.
