It doesn't go away (Saint Porphyrios of Kavsoakalyvia)

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

Some Christians, either through their own fault or that of others find themselves trapped in the sickness of guilt, and a lot of secular people suffer from a worse illness: pride. Now spiritual guilt is dissipated through Christ and repentance, at confession. But the pride of people living 'in the world', far from Christ, doesn't disappear.
