It won't be justified (Saint Theophan the Recluse)

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

Many reasons will present themselves for your lack of concentration, but that won't justify any carelessness. Struggle and you'll manage to keep your mind undistracted. Whatever work or action you may do, think that you're doing it before the Lord Himself, Who in reality accepts your service. Pray and God will bless your contribution.
