

When God is obliged (Elder Ephraim of Arizona)

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

Insofar as someone suffers a variety of trials, be they bodily or spiritual and bears them consciously and thanks God, then, if nothing else, God's obliged to send His consolation to cool their souls.

The more you suffer, the greater's your reward.