

Freedom obliges (Saint Nectarios of Pentapolis)

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

Our moral us to take steps towards our salvation, because otherwise we'll be lost.

Formal recognition of our moral freedom by the Saviour teaches us that our salvation depends not only on the action of the Grace of God, but also on our own consent and simultaneous activity.

» Saint Nectarios of Pentapolis