

God doesn't discriminate (Saint Theophan the Recluse)

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

God doesn't discriminate.

He doesn't take into consideration what people were – good or bad, virtuous or sinful – before they desired Grace. He simply awaits the expression of this desire from each of us, and as soon as that happens, Grace begins to act.

» Saint Theophan the Recluse