

2 Δεκεμβρίου 2018

Let's not be overwhelmed (Saint Ambrose of Milan)

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

'Don't let us fall into temptation that we can't withstand'. As if we were athletes wishing to compete and asking for the strength to resist our opponent, which in this case is sin. The Lord, Who took our sins upon His shoulders and forgave our errors, is able to protect us and guard us against the stratagems of the devil who wages war against us. The devil is the enemy who always engenders evil in order to overcome us, but if we trust in God, we don't fear him.