In essence it isn't (Elder Aimilianos Simonopetritis)

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

Unexpected things keep cropping up for us, because we have a will and hunger. These unexpected things are in conflict with our will and wishes, which is why they seem to be unexpected, though, in fact, they're not. Because people who love God expect anything and everything and always say: 'May your will be done'.
