

13 Ιανουαρίου 2019

It wouldn't bear fruit (Saint Macarius of Egypt)

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

You should know that, hidden away in sorrows and sufferings, in patience and faith are God's promises, as also are His glory and the acquisition of the heavenly blessings. Because even the wheat that's sown in the earth first has to rot and seemingly decay before we can enjoy its beauty and the multiplication of its yield. If it isn't subjected to this rotting and decaying, there's no harvest.