

Prayer XIII - St. Nikolai Velimirovic

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

You do not ask much of me, my love. Indeed, people ask more. I am wrapped in a thick wrapping of nonexistence that covers the eyes of my soul. You only ask my soul to take off her misty wrapping and open her eyes to You, my might and my truth. People ask my soul to wrap herself more and more thickly with heavier and heavier wrappings.

O help me, help me! Help my soul to attain freedom and lightness, to attain lightness and aerial wings, to attain aerial wings and fiery wheels. (περισσότερα...)