“Laughter is democracy. Sulkiness is a form of social fascism...”

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

“We must not only live with a free spirit during our public life, but also during our everyday contact with others we must be free from mistrust, since we should not be angry against others for what they do in order to please themselves, neither should we sulk in front of them. This may not injure but it certainly harms someone.”
