

Davutoğlu issues covert warning of pending war

We are situated in such a problematic location that we, Foreign Minister Ahmet Davutoğlu and I, were tired of speaking about regional problems on our way back from Bishkek.

Wherever you look, there are chronic problems and all of these problems are related to each other. When there is progress on the solution to one, the solution to another may be blocked.

Read more...

\(περισσότερα...\)