Saint Nilus the Myrrh-gusher. A fresco from the Holy Skete of St. Demetrios, Holy and Great Monastery of Vatopaidi, Holy Mount Athos

Saint Nilus lived in the 16th Century. He was born in a village near Tripolis in the Peloponnisos area in Greece. He became an ascetic on Mount Athos and died on the 12th November 1651. Fragrant myrrh was dripping out from his tomb and for this reason he is called Myrovlitis. read more... (περισσότερα...)
