German leader urges Turks to respect Christian rights

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

German President Christian Wulff urged Turkey Tuesday to respect the religious freedoms of Christian minorities, a key issue in the country's struggling bid to join the European Union.

Wulff made the appeal after talks with Turkish leaders in Ankara, dominated by issues of co-habitation and a simmering debate in Germany on whether Berlin had failed in efforts to integrate Muslim immigrants, many of them Turks.
