St Platonida (Platonis) of Nisibis - April 6

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English / Saints

Saint Platonida was at first a deaconess, but afterwards withdrew into the Nisibis desert, where she organized a women's monastery.

The Rule of her monastery was distinguished for its strictness. The sisters partook of food only once a day. When they were not praying, they spent their time in monastic labors and various obediences. Read more...  $(\pi \epsilon \rho \iota \sigma \sigma \delta \tau \epsilon \rho \alpha ...)$
