

ON TUESDAY OF HOLY WEEK we commemorate the parable of the Ten Virgins, Matt. 25:1-13. Ethical preparation and wakefulness are the foundations of vivid faith. The parable of the Ten Virgins is developed around the theme of the Bridegroom: «Why are Thou heedless, O my soul? . . . Work most diligently with the talent which has been confided to thee; both watch and pray.» The hymnologist reminds us, «I do not possess a torch aflame with virtue, and the foolish virgin I imitate when it is the time for action»; and, «Into the splendor of thy saints, how can I, who am unholy, enter?» The exhortation is given: «Come Ye faithful, let us work earnestly for the Master . . . increase our talent of grace ... Wisdom through good works.»
